

Family Discussion Questions

Our Forgetful God
Psalms 13:1-6
November 21st-22nd

Psalm 13:1-6 (ICB)

How long will you forget me, Lord?

How long will you hide from me? Forever?

How long must I worry?

How long must I feel sad in my heart?

How long will my enemy win over me?

Lord, look at me.

Answer me, my God.

Tell me, or I will die.

Otherwise my enemy will say, "I have won!"

Those against me will rejoice that I've been defeated.

I trust in your love.

My heart is happy because you saved me.

I sing to the Lord

because he has taken care of me.

Discussion Questions

1. How do you think the writer of this Psalm is feeling in verses 1-2?
2. Do you think God really wants you to share all your feelings with Him or just the good feelings when you're in a good mood?
3. Have you ever tried talking honestly to God when you have a bad attitude, are angry, lonely, sad, or scared?
4. After David shares all his feelings with God, what does he do next?
5. What worship song reminds you the most about God's love for you, even when you're hurting or feeling alone?