John 17:20-23 (NLT)

²⁰ “I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me through their message. ²¹ I pray that they will all be one, just as you and I are one—as you are in me, Father, and I am in you. And may they be in us so that the world will believe you sent me. ²² “I have given them the glory you gave me, so they may be one as we are one. ²³ I am in them and you are in me. May they experience such perfect unity that the world will know that you sent me and that you love them as much as you love me.

“Every divine action begins from the Father, proceeds through the Son, and is completed in the Holy Spirit.”

- Basil of Caesarea

“The beginning of our salvation is from God the Father, the dispensation is from the Son, and the application from the Holy Ghost.”

- Thomas Manton

“...it is also true that the reality of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit working together as a team for the full salvation of sinners pervades the entire New Testament.”

- J.I. Packer

“...the cooperative activity of the Three in saving us—the Father planning, the Son procuring, and the Spirit applying redemption.”

- J.I. Packer

¹⁶ And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever— ¹⁷ the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you. ¹⁸ I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.
